

HD delta robot receives award

The HD Delta robot was honored at the Anuga Foodtec with the “Meat processing Technology Award 2012” for automation.

Visit our homepage at:
www.autonox24.com

In 2012 – for the first time – technical innovations were awarded that have a sustainable advantage for meat and sausage processing companies and the quality of produced food. The award in the “automation” category went to the Delta robot in Hygienic Design (HD) by MAJAtronic, a subsidiary of the mechanical engineering company MAJA. With this development MAJAtronic makes an important contribution to automation solutions in meat processing.

